Response to Office Action

Dear Examiner Poinvil:

Please enter my enclosed Response to Office Action, respective my Non-Provisional Application #09/489,739, responding to your Office Action bearing mailing date of 07/05/2005. Enter this cover letter, as well as my Amendment to the Claims, and new Set of Claims #64 - 76.

As I discussed with you, your mailing to me arrived opened, and the original contents had been stolen, with a photocopy of only the Detailed Action placed into the tampered envelope. I have reported the mail crime to my local post office, which has in turn reported it to the U.S. Postal Inspector. Should you have any information of use to the investigation, please contact the Postal Inspector handling this case, R. S. Knowles, at (909) 387-8730, Complaint No. 2555532.

Pursuant to my Response, please find enclosed my Amendment to the Claims, listing the cancellation of my claim set, claims numbered 52 through 61, with previous cancellation of my claims numbered 1 through 51, and claims 62 and 63. Please enter for examination my new set of claims, numbered 64 through 76. Thank you for your detailed comments and useful criticisms.

Sincerely,

David Andrew D'Zmura
(pro-se independent inventor)

Amendment to the Claims

Dear Examiner Poinvil:

Please cancel my examined claims, numbered 52 through 61, and please enter my new set of claims, numbered 64 through 76, for your re-examination of my Application #09/489,739. In my new set of claims, I have reduced the number of independent claims by one, from seven to six. The total number of claims in my new set is thirteen. Please examine this new set of claims. My claim numbered 76 corresponds to my claim number 61, the latter you stated was missing.

List of the Claims

Claims 1 through 51	Previously Canceled
Claims 62 and 63	Previously Canceled
Claims 52 through 61	Canceled per this Amendment
Claims 64 through 76	Entered per this Amendment.

Thank you for your useful and salient comments and criticisms in your Office Action.

Sincerely,

David Andrew D'Zmura
(pro-se independent inventor)
